Quilter's Emporium's 2020 Quilting Cruise

March 1-8, 2020

Join Rose Ann Cook, owner of Quilter's Emporium of Texas, as she welcomes you aboard Royal Caribbean's Liberty of the Seas for their 20th quilting cruise! Quilter's Emporium is the first quilt shop to utilize the historic port of Galveston for quilting cruises! Know from the start, that your vacation is managed by professionals that have your best interests at heart. Enjoy an ever changing slate of gifted teachers and special events on each cruise.

Our cruises are popular because new Janome sewing machines are provided for your use! You don't have to worry about hauling your own machine on your vacation! Our cruises have always been unique in that we value your varied interests. We offer you different classes to take every day. You don't have to take the same classes that everyone else is taking!

Our 2020 teachers are amazing! First of all, we are excited to have Angela Huffman, on this sailing! Angela shares co-hosting duties on the popular Fons and Porter TV Show on PBS. She will teach two unique quilt projects and a ruler work class on domestic machines. She has a wealth of information that will benefit every quilting guest!

Welcome back to Heidi Pridemore, owner and designer for The Whimsical Workshop. You've seen her quilts in just about every quilt magazine out there! She also designs quilting fabric. She has terrific, unique projects to share with you! Her company has to turn around dozens of quilts in a very tight time schedule to prepare for the twice annual Quilt Market for quilting professionals. She will share a lot of her tips and tricks for speedy and accurate piecing. We will learn lots from her!

We also welcome back popular Judy Neimeyer certified quilt teacher, Jan Mathews.

Her classes are always popular wherever she goes and you will definitely want to take one of them if you have never done paper piecing! She takes the mystery out of the process!

Depending on how many quilting guests attend this sailing, we may add even more teachers! Stay tuned, but sign up soon. Cabins are limited!
